Interactive Whiteboard (IWB) Trainers' Course

Presenter – Louise Hedley

Years P–12

In these sessions:

The Interactive Whiteboard (IWB) Trainers' Course aims to give participants the skills required to lead their school through the successful implementation of Interactive Whiteboards. Throughout the course participants will be provided with the required skills and resources to coordinate the IWB program at their school. They will also learn techniques that can be used to improve the sharing of resources which aims to reduce preparation time and encourage wider use of this technology throughout the school. Participants are asked to bring along a laptop with their school's IWB software allowing for a hands-on session.

In this course participants will take part in the following sessions:

- Session 1: An exploration of IWB tools and skills and how they can be used throughout the curriculum
- Session 2: Experience a range of templates that can be created and modified for use at all year levels
- Session 3: Techniques that allow for increased sharing of resources and a reduced workload for teachers
- Session 4: Creating a program that encourages wider use of IWB technology

The course will be supported by an online forum which will allow participants to communicate between sessions and ask the trainer for ideas and advice.

About the presenter:

Louise Hedley – Louise is a passionate educator with a diverse range of educational experiences. She has a Masters of Education specialising in ICT and International Schooling. Louise undertook a professional learning fellowship, researching the use of interactive whiteboards in the UK. This led to the role of ICT coordinator, overseeing the installation of interactive whiteboards and development of comprehensive ICT programs. Louise is a trained teacher of the International Baccalaureate's Primary Years Program and has held the position of Numeracy Coordinator after becoming a certified Early Years Numeracy Coordinator. Louise now works as a full time professional learning presenter and has presented in both Australia and abroad.
