

We were playing the Cobras that day. The Cobras aren't a nice team. The last time we played them, we lost 3-nil. They called us losers.

But this time we didn't play like losers. It was a tight game. We stopped the Cobras getting any runs, but we didn't get any runs either. We played well, but the new kid played the best. He was really good at fielding and batting. He never gave up. He made us all try harder.
